Lashanti

Meet 15 year old Lashanti! Lashanti has an awesome sense of humor and loves to make others laugh. Trust is extremely important to Lashanti. She is sweet and caring. Lashanti also has a creative imagination and likes to express this in her drawings and paintings. Lashanti enjoys learning new things in school, and has had a new interest in science and language classes this year! She spends time with her friends, is interested in researching her Native American culture, and is eager to find her forever family.

Lashanti would like to live in a family with two moms, and she would love to have sisters. Lashanti's team is open to all families that are interested in learning more about this smart, funny, unique young lady! It is important that Lashanti's forever family be kind, supportive, and patient. Lashanti will thrive in a home with consistency and structure. It is imperative that Lashanti's forever family be willing to maintain the positive connections that Lashanti has.
